Teaching

University of Virginia
Instructor, Summer Language Institute Summer 2020
• Planned and implemented intensive instruction programs for students, providing personalized feedback and academic guidance to students.

Graduate Instructor of Latin 2019-2010
• Taught classes, both small sessions and combined lecture courses. Worked with other instructors to coordinate across sections, implement joint goals, and develop educational strategies. Assisted in designing and launching an online program to facilitate continued education during the Covid-19 outbreak.

University of Notre Dame
Adjunct Professional Specialist Summer 2018
• Taught combined Graduate and Undergraduate classes in an intensive summer course, meeting 2 hours daily, 5 days a week.

Graduate Student Instructor of Latin Fall 2017
• Managed class independently as instructor of record. Duties included lesson planning, composing quizzes and exams, grading, and teaching three days a week.

Graduate Teaching Assistant Fall 2016
• As a teaching assistant, my responsibilities included grading assignments, working with students to plan research projects, and leading museum field trips. In addition, I facilitated weekly discussion-based classes, prepared and gave lectures, and assisted faculty with other tasks as assigned.

Baylor University
Paul L. Foster Success Center
Academic Tutor 2014-2016
• Provided course-specific tutoring and personalized academic mentoring to students at various levels and in a wide variety of subjects across the humanities.

Other Experience

University of Notre Dame
Research Assistant to Prof. Martin Bloomer 2016-2017
• Served as personal research assistant to a senior faculty member for a large-scale project on medieval school-books. Duties included managing a large database of references, compiling sources/bibliographies, and disseminating relevant resources to team members.

Baylor University
Papyrology Research Team 2013-2016
• Member of faculty and student team working to conserve and publish recently discovered ancient Greek papyri. Part of a multi-university effort at expanding scholarship of classic literature and historical artifacts. Studied and translated Greek manuscripts alongside Baylor Classics Department professors. Cataloged and reported manuscript data. Contributed to formal research projects.

The Pulse Undergraduate Research Journal
